

SPECIAL ED LAW TALKS

Learn how YOU can be your child's strongest advocate.

Parent-Attorney Monthly Meet-ups

6PM THE SECOND THURSDAY OF EVERY MONTH**

Sponsored by The Law Offices of Scott B. Ayers

Fall/Winter: SEPTEMBER 10, OCTOBER 8, NOVEMBER 12, DECEMBER 10, JANUARY 14, FEBRUARY 11

*At WRTS Northridge: 19520 Nordhoff St. #18/19 Northridge, CA 91324 (818) 341-3818
(behind Guitar Center, across from the Northridge Mall)*

Special Education attorney Scott B. Ayers will lead a round table discussion on IEPs and other topics in Special Education Law including Special Needs Trusts and Conservatorships. Bring your specific questions and any documents you would like to talk about. Childcare will be provided for only $10 per child, supervised by WRTS's highly qualified staff!

Email lilly@scottthelawyerayers.com or call/text (310) 623-0902 to RSVP. It will be a lovely evening—the children will have a blast playing while parents attend the talk and have the opportunity for fellowship before and after the talk.

We Rock the Spectrum Northridge provides children with a fun and motivational environment to help them in the areas of strength, movement, sensory processing, communication, positive behavior modification, social interactions, and self-care skills. Their unique equipment assists all children in their neurological growth and development. Owned by Dr. Agnesa Papazyan, Psy. D., aka Dr. Aggie, WRTS - Northridge also provides various clinical services such as individual psychotherapy, social skills groups, psychological assessment, speech therapy, and ABA services.

<http://www.werockthespectrumnorthridge.com>

Scott B. Ayers attended Washington & Lee University on a full scholarship as a Robert E. Lee Scholar and National Merit Scholar, then continued his education at Pepperdine University School of Law. He began working for notable special education attorney, Tim Adams at Roberts and Adams, then joined Kamaroff and Associates as a junior partner before establishing his own practice in 2005. Most notably, Mr. Ayers has accomplished an undefeated litigation record in special education law.

www.scottthelawyerayers.com